

CLASSIC SERVICE

JANUARY 24, 2021 • 9:15AM • THIRD SUNDAY AFTER THE EPIPHANY

Welcome! We're excited you're here. In our service, we gather before Almighty God to offer Him our worship and praise. We gather to be strengthened through the study of God's Word.

Families, Friends, and Guests of Zion. Please know that your safety is very important to us as we gather to worship Almighty God in-person (or online). Please observe proper social distancing. Approach wearing your mask (and we require that anyone 4 years old and up should do so) with a servant-like attitude that looks out for the best of others. We will instruct you on how to best enter and exit the worship space before and after service. Restrooms are available through the atrium space (to your left and down the hall, notice flow patterns through atrium doorways) and are cleaned before and after each service as is the worship space. Our prayer is: the worship environment we create together allows us to be one and worship God freely and safely even in adverse times like this. Welcome!

As we gather.

The Lord always sets the right time for the right people to be used for His mission and purposes. Throughout the Old Testament, He spoke through prophets to proclaim His Word. As His own beloved Son, came into the world when the time was right, God used John the Baptist, a virgin teenager, and an older priest to prepare the way for Christ. Then Jesus echoed and perfectly fulfilled all that would come to fruition in and through Him. As Christ calls His first disciples, the call continues. Even today, as we gather in His name, that same call through those the Lord has placed in His right time is heard with open ears and willing hearts within His Church, that we may live faithful lives of repentance in creative and corporate faith as we follow Him.

OPENING SENTENCES

Psalm 113:1–2

P Praise the LORD! Praise, O servants of the LORD, praise the name of the LORD!

C Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore!

CONFESSION AND ABSOLUTION

Mark 1:15; Psalm 113:2–3

P Gracious Lord, You have called us Your own, and we are to pray, praise, and give thanks to You.

C Yet we often do not live as You have called us to live as Your own. We do not always honor Your name nor Your calling with our praise. We confess our sins to You in repentance, turning from those things that lead us away and back to You as we follow in faith.

[Silence for reflection and personal confession.]

P Almighty and ever-compassionate Lord,

C we are by nature sinful and unclean. We confess our many failures as we have not followed You joyfully and trustingly. We have not loved others as ourselves, and our thoughts, words, and deeds have not been pleasing to You. We have not always welcomed Your call for us to follow You and You alone.

P The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God is at hand; repent and believe in the Gospel. Hear and rejoice in the Good News. Jesus Christ died for you, and for His sake, God has compassion. As a called and ordained servant of the Word, and in His stead, I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the † Son and of the Holy Spirit.

C Amen. Thanks be to God!

P Blessed be the name of the LORD from this time forth and forevermore!

C From the rising of the sun to its setting, the name of the LORD is to be praised!

HYMN OF PRAISE

694 Thee Will I Love, My Strength, My Tower

4 O keep me watchful, then, and humble; Permit me nevermore to stray.

Uphold me when my feet would stumble, And keep me on the narrow way.

Fill all my nature with Thy light, O Radiance strong and bright!

SALUTATION

P The Lord be with you.

C And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

P Let us pray. Almighty and everlasting God, as the call to follow You comes to us through Your Word, grant us Your Holy Spirit that we trust and serve You in repentance and faith; through Jesus Christ, Your Son, our Lord, who lives and reigns with You and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C Amen.

OLD TESTAMENT READING

Micah 6:1-8

(What does the Lord require?)

Hear what the LORD says: Arise, plead your case before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice. ²Hear, you mountains, the indictment of the LORD, and you enduring foundations of the earth, for the LORD has an indictment against his people, and he will contend with Israel. ³"O my people, what have I done to you? How have I wearied you? Answer me! ⁴For I brought you up from the land of Egypt and redeemed you from the house of slavery, and I sent before you Moses, Aaron, and Miriam. ⁵O my people, remember what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him, and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal, that you may know the righteous acts of the LORD." What Does the LORD Require? ⁶"With what shall I come before the LORD, and bow myself before

God on high? Shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old? ⁷ Will the LORD be pleased with thousands of rams, with ten thousands of rivers of oil? Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?" ⁸ He has told you, O man, what is good; and what does the LORD require of you but to do justice, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?

L This is the Word of the Lord.

C Thanks be to God.

EPISTLE

1 Corinthians 7:29–31

(As time grows short, Paul encourages faithful use of time.)

²⁹ This is what I mean, brothers: the appointed time has grown very short. From now on, let those who have wives live as though they had none, ³⁰ and those who mourn as though they were not mourning, and those who rejoice as though they were not rejoicing, and those who buy as though they had no goods, ³¹ and those who deal with the world as though they had no dealings with it. For the present form of this world is passing away.

HOLY GOSPEL

John 1:43-51

(Jesus calls Phillip and Nathanael.)

P The Holy Gospel according to St. John, the first chapter.

C Glory to You, O Lord.

⁴³ The next day Jesus decided to go to Galilee. He found Philip and said to him, "Follow me." ⁴⁴ Now Philip was from Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter. ⁴⁵ Philip found Nathanael and said to him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the Law and also the prophets wrote, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph." ⁴⁶ Nathanael said to him, "Can anything good come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see." ⁴⁷ Jesus saw Nathanael coming toward him and said of him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom there is no deceit!" ⁴⁸ Nathanael said to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you." ⁴⁹ Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are the King of Israel!" ⁵⁰ Jesus answered him,

"Because I said to you, 'I saw you under the fig tree,' do you believe? You will see greater things than these." ⁵¹ And he said to him, "Truly, truly, I say to you, you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

P This is the Gospel of the Lord.

C Praise to You, O Christ.

CATECHISM

7th and 8th Commandments

C The seventh commandment says, "You shall not steal."

P What does this mean?

C We should fear and love God so that we do not take our neighbor's money or possessions, or get them in any dishonest way, but help him to improve and protect his possessions and income.

CATECHISM (cont.)

C We should fear and love God so that we do not take our neighbor’s money or possessions, or get them in any dishonest way, but help him to improve and protect his possessions and income.

P The eighth commandment says, “You shall not give false testimony.”

C What does this mean?

P We should fear and love God so that we do not tell lies about our neighbor, betray him, slander him, or hurt his reputation,

C but defend him, speak well of him, and explain everything in the kindest way.

OFFERING (Thanks for your ongoing support of God’s mission here – Children return from CC.)
