
SPECIFIC PRAYERS OF THANKSGIVING; JOYS IN GOD’S WORK AND WILL

We pray for. . .

- The baptisms of Frederick and Theodore Berndt! (8-29-21)
- Community partnerships and events – work for the good of community and the glory of God.
- Stories of change, blessing, challenge, and connection to the ministry of Christ and the working out of our vision of taking Jesus’ cross of grace and peace to our community.
- Birthdays and anniversaries. Everyday blessings and the eyes to see them.
- Those who are working for our protection, health, and healing in these times (here and globally). Especially: medical staffs, vaccination clinic personnel, first responders, and caregivers.
- The ministry of Immanuel Lutheran Church and School, Hamilton, Ohio.
- University, High School, Middle, Elementary and Pre-School staffs, leaders, administrators – as they make the best decisions for the continuing school year. Parents, teachers, specialists, aides, support staff and volunteers – as they safely engage for the betterment of the education of children and the community and schools in which they are, especially during the changing pandemic. The education of each child in sacred and secular ways that give honor to God and His work. The Children/ Students – as they return to school and grow as God so blesses and equips. The transitions encountered and the challenges to life and soul – that each child may see and know that not only are they cared for by many yet even more by God Himself.
