From The 66...

Genesis 32:26

"Then he said, 'Let me go, for the day has broken.' But Jacob said, 'I will not let you go unless you bless me.'"

The great Lutheran musician J.S. Bach composed a beautiful motet using this verse. It is the cry of true faith, much the same as Peter's words: "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life" (John 6:68). True faith clings to the Lord no matter the struggle, no matter the "hard sayings" that the Lord speaks. True faith knows that God means to bless us always.

Looking Ahead. Giving Back. Noting an Opportunity.

Our staffed Nursery is for children ages 3 and under. The nursery is downstairs in the children's ministry area. Parents are welcome to keep their kids in the service, but if they have the wiggles, the nursery is for you. Would you like to help out in the nursery? If you would like to be on the sub list, contact Carolyn Remmele (carolyn.remmele@gmail.com).

October Sermon Series: The Creed -- Big Idea: This four-week series examines the Nicene Creed and its development from the Council of Nicaea. Through examining the work of the early church in the Word, we see the importance of leaders being led by the Spirit to help clarify needed issues. We also see the heresy that led to the need for the creed and the importance of affirming the divinity of Jesus and the beauty of the Trinity.

Fall Bible Study -- Are farmers the only people who work out in the field? Are church workers the only people who can be a witness of Christ? The answer to both of these questions is a resounding NO! In our upcoming Sunday morning Bible Study, "Witnessing in the Field", we will be discussing what it looks like to be a witness to Christ in the world, using Mark Wood's Book Connected to Christ: Witnessing in Everyday Life as a guide for our study and discussion. Please join us in October as we learn to be farmers for Christ!

Upcoming Sunday Bible Study -- Do you find it challenging to hold tight to God's goodness through the busyness of life? Gratitude is a five-session study that explores ways to slow down, find the joy in the life, and reminds us of God's grace. Starting Nov. 2 - PJ

Maddux News - Due to a generous gift from one of our Women's bible study groups, we are only in need of stocking up on two things: HOT CHOCOLATE PACKS and RAVIOLI/SPAGHETTI SMALL SINGLE SERVE. Thank you again for your wonderful support.

Altar Care -- Please return or donate empty coffee containers to Altar Care. We are running low. Thanks so much.

Zion's children's ministry is looking for some volunteers to support the program by doing some simple but important tasks. We could use another person or two to work at our Sunday School check-in table. We could also use a person or two (or three) to wash toys in the nursery. Contact Chris Graves if you would be willing to do these things.

The Week of October 12 through 18th – a small (exploratory) group from Zion went on a mission trip. Thank you for your prayers! Thank you for your care while we were gone. We look forward to telling the story of our trip down there and seeing how God uses this to grow us as a congregation moving forward.

Emergency Plans -- Please find copies of the Emergency Plan and Personnel Security Procedures for Zion Lutheran Church on the information table.

"TAKING THE CROSS OF GRACE AND PEACE..."

Devoting Ourselves to the Word

Then these righteous ones will reply, "Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? When did we ever see you sick or in prison and visit you?" And the King will say, "I tell you the truth, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!" -Matthew 25:37-40 (NLT)

When I read this text, the first thing that comes to mind are those sappy commercials that play non-stop on TV in the week between Christmas and New Years. You probably know the ones, from the ASPCA, Save the Children, Shriners, etc. They depict images of sick and destitute children and animals, while the song "Angel" by Sarah McLachlan (a song which has nothing to do with poor kids and puppies) plays in the background. Surely, it is the creatures in these advertisements that are "the least of these".

Yes, in many ways, sick children, starving orphans, and abandoned kittens are "the least of these", as they do exhibit great need, and we are called as Christians to care for them. However, I think that sometimes we can be so focused on "the least of these" who are distanced from us, that we forget they exist in our own communities. Sin is universal, which means the brokenness it causes is universal too. We all have people we know who need the love of Christ, and it is our call as Christians to serve them as well, just as Christ served us.

Sometimes, those sappy commercials can also make the needs of the world seem like they are too big for us to do anything about, except maybe donate $20. While donating to responsible charities and organizations is certainly a good thing to do, it is not the only way we can join the mission of serving our neighbor and sharing the love of Christ. The passage from Matthew 25 lists a variety of ways in which we can serve "the least of these", and these are ways people can serve no matter their age or ability. Sometimes mission is feeding orphans in a distant land, but sometimes it is also as simple as sharing a meal with a neighbor.
